CITY NEWS.

—Fires and light overcasts were comfortable yesterday.
—The Jewish new year festival begins at sunset this evening.
—Ministers at the matinee today and for the last time tonight.
—The grand jury yesterday returned several important indictments.
—A "shover of the queer," who gave his name as Thomas Grigby, was arrested yesterday.
—The charming ambrette Lazie Barnes will be at the New Memphis theatre the whole of next week.
—The top gown will run tonight for the benefit of those who desire to remain awake on account of the earthquake.

—The cases of Felix Lenz for murder, and Dick Withers and B. McCoy for assault to murder, were reset in the Criminal Court yesterday for October 6th.

—The case of Wm. Meyer for the murder of Will Danavant will be heard October 12th, and that of Wm.
Bath for slaying John Kelly on October 7th.

—This was the day we were to have Wiggins's earthquake, but the old Canadian fraud has disappointed the public by declaring that he had never made such a prediction.

—A little unpleasantness over a business affair ended in a lively set to between a couple of young business men on Madison street yesterday. No bones broken and no blood spilt.

—Chains were stretched across Center alley at Poplar and Exchange streets yesterday, and teams cannot now enter there on account of the interruption by noise to the Criminal Court.

—Some mischief making scoundrels are tampering with the wires of the Thompson-Houston Electric Light Company and impairing the efficiency of their service. The police should keep on the lookout for them.

—Judge Dubee ordered P. Wallace McKettick indicted yesterday for vagancy. He has been tied for fraud a number of times, on the last occasion for obtaining groceries under false pretenses, but always escapes through a technicality.

—Claude Cain, a boy of ten years, yesterday getting off a car on Vance street yesterday afternoon, missed his footing and fell. Just at this time a passing carriage rolled over him, but without inflicting serious injury, as none of his limbs are broken and no internal damages sustained. His escape, under the circumstances, is marvelous.

—A movement is on foot to give the poor children of the city "an afternoon on the toboggan" free of cost.
The idea emanates from a gentleman connected with one of the banks, who will cheerfully pay all expenses. Mr.
Tracy has named Saturday, October 9th, as the date for the little ones "big time."

—A sample of cotton grown by S. W. Ferguson, of Burdett Landing, Miss., was shown us yesterday that for staple, color and clean spinning goes beyond anything we have seen of this year's crop. The ginning was by Mr. D. Williams, of Randle & Co. The gin, having a fast elevator, has turned out the cotton pure and clear of dust.

—And now Justice Galloway is trying to make it appear that the picnic announced to be given by him in his ten acre field today was unauthorized by him. He will find it hard to convince the multitude who will assemble there today, and unless he furnishes sacred music, red lemonade and balloons he will be a burden to himself until Wiggins dies.

—The lecture room of the First Methodist Church was full at the last Wednesday evening service, and with doubtless has full again tonight.
Dr. Steele's method of conducting this service has developed great interest in his congregation. Tonight the subject will be "The Influence of Song in the Work for Christ." The singing will be a delightful part of this service.

—Officer Obastine's attention was attracted by a quick gathering crowd on the levee yesterday, and when he reached the spot discovered the center of attraction to be an Irish couple engaged in a little "family dispute," as the old lady afterward explained.
A woman with a very red face, dressed in her Sunday clothes, was banging a tall and rather unsteady individual over the head with her parasol. It was a wreck when the officer snatched it from her, and his rusty derby was smashed out of shape and crumpled down hard over his eyes.

—N. W. Ayer & Son's American Newspaper Annual for 1886 contains a carefully prepared list of all newspapers and periodicals in the United States and Canada, arranged by States in geographical sections, and by towns in alphabetical order, giving the name of the papers, the issue, general characteristics, year of establishment, size, circulation, and advertising rates for ten lines one month. A list of all newspapers inserting advertisements, arranged in States by counties, with the distinctive features and circulation of each paper. Also complete lists of all the religious or agricultural periodicals, of medical, commercial, scientific, educational, or any other of the class of publications, as well as all publications printed in foreign languages.
It contains besides a vast amount of general and statistical information of practical value to almost every business man, and is, in its line, a deserving a place on desk or in library as Webster's dictionary or a first class encyclopedia.

PERSONAL.

Dr. ENKINER has returned to the city.

E. BLUM, of New York, is stopping at the Gayoso Hotel.

JUDGE JAMES FETTER, of Bolivar, is at the Gayoso Hotel.

Miss M. THOMPSON has returned from a visit to Mississippi.

Miss VANCE JOHNSON is home again from her summer vacation.

E. H. MOORE, wife and child, of Mississippi, are at the Gayoso Hotel.

W. G. REED, of Boston, has returned and taken rooms at Gayoso Hotel.

J. O. CLARK, president of the Illinois Central railroad, is stopping at the Gayoso Hotel.

T. R. MICOE has returned from a visit to Searcy Springs, much benefited in health.

Mrs. Z. N. ESTES arrived home last night after summering in the mountains of North Carolina.

Mrs. J. J. DUFFY has returned from spending the summer at Morehead City and Allegheny Springs.

Miss M. LEE BARROW has returned from the East and will resume her music class Monday, October 4th.

E. R. WOOD and H. O. COWIE have returned from Liverpool and taken rooms for the winter at Gayoso Hotel.

It has been but a few days since the APPEAL noticed the return of the Rev.
H. A. JONES from England, where he had been on a visit to his aged parents, and it is now his sad privilege to announce the sudden death of his aged mother at Liverpool. Though she lived to the ripe old age of 79 to enjoy the devoted affection of her son, his wide circle of warm friends will sympathize deeply with him in his human grief for her loss.

GET MONEY!

A Dollar Is a Dollar, Whether Saved or Earned.

How to Have Cash!

Letting In a Little Light on the Subject of Lucre.

A dollar saved is a dollar earned.
It is not what a man earns that makes him wealthy. It is what he saves.
It is easier to spend money than it is to earn it. Therefore, when you spend it see that you get full value for it.

Clothing is a necessity of life. We have to dress. The laws of civilization demand it. Clothing costs money, and the MISFIT CLOTH-ING PARLORS, No. 262 Second
